

"DE-LIGHT-ED," SAYS JEROME

District-Attorney Adopts Strenuous Form of Expressing His Pleasure at Senate's Passage of Canfield Bill.

HAS FAITH THAT IT WILL PASS ASSEMBLY.

If Measure Can Be Got Out of Committee and Debated on the Open Floor He Is Confident of Success.

There was a note of satisfaction on the face of District-Attorney Jerome when he arrived at his office to-day. A half dozen of his subordinates crowded about him and congratulated him on his success in Albany yesterday when the Canfield bill was passed by the State Senate.

"De-light-ed, de-light-ed," he said, jokingly. "But seriously speaking, I am. I have no fear of its not passing the Assembly by the committee on Codes, of which Phillips, of Albany, is chairman, will only bring it out for debate on the floor."

Doesn't Fear Attack On Floor.

"Assembliesmen may differ as to the propriety of the measure, but I think it highly important that any sane, self-respecting man will get up on the floor and question the legality or constitutionality of the bill. It is a great deal easier for a Senator like Mr. Eiseberg to go before the 30,000 constituents in his district and explain his friendly attitude to a man like Canfield than it is for a member of the Assembly who represents a small rural constituency."

"When one of these rural Assemblymen returns to his native hearth and in the corner grocery store is confronted with some sugar barrel philosopher who demands to know why he stood for Canfield, he will find it a difficult question to answer satisfactorily and keep up a decent reputation."

How It Will Be Fought.

"What will be done with the bill in the Assembly?" Jerome was asked. "I think an effort will be made to keep it in the Codes committee until the last day of the session, when the Committee on Rules takes charge of all bills. This latter committee is absolutely despotic and if they once get hold of the bill it will be good-bye forever."

"But I believe the bill will be reported out all right, and if it is and can be debated on the floor it will pass all right. I am going to be there, and if the bill comes out of the Codes Committee will make every effort to pass it."

"It will be attacked on the ground of being unconstitutional," Jerome said.

"It is wonderful," was the reply, "how tender certain people get when the Constitution of the State is mentioned."

The District-Attorney was loud in his praise of Senator Dowling, who fathered the bill and worked for its passage in the Senate.

Asked how he enjoyed sitting in the Senate and listening to Senator Brackett's remarks about him and his mental condition, Jerome replied:

Oh, for a Few "Hot Ones."

"While it was very interesting it was not pleasant not to refrain from wishing I had the privilege of three quarters of an hour to hand out a few 'hot ones' to Senator Brackett's side."

Mr. Jerome evaded replying directly to a question from Mr. Odeli.

"I don't anticipate anything. As it is I am very well satisfied with things as they are at present."

SENTENCED FORMER PRESIDENT TO DEATH

Policarpo Bonilla, of Honduras, Ordered to Be Shot Because of Alleged Plot Against the Present Government.

PANAMA, March 22.—There is a report here to the effect that former President Policarpo Bonilla, of Honduras, has been tried by a court-martial and sentenced to be shot.

President Manuel Bonilla charged Gen. Policarpo Bonilla and several other members of the Chamber of Deputies with hatching a plot against the Government. Gen. Bonilla and the others were thrown into prison a month ago.

General Policarpo Bonilla is said to be the only President of Honduras that ever retired from the office willingly and without being deposed by a revolution or starting one to bring him back to power.

Manuel Bonilla fought his way to the Presidency through a revolution a year ago. Last month he declared martial law and said that another revolutionary plot was being hatched.

$6,000 FOR HUSBAND'S DEATH

Mrs. Kate Hoey-Carroll Awarded Verdict Against Railway Company

Mrs. Kate V. Hoey-Carroll was awarded a verdict to-day before Justice White in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for $6,000 against the Metropolitan Railway Company.

She sued for $25,000 damages for the death of her husband, James J. Hoey, on Dec. 11, 1898. He was in the mailing department of the New York World and was Secretary of the Mailers' Union.

The accident occurred while Mr. Hoey was riding up West Broadway. A Metropolitan car collided with the car in which he was riding and threw it up against a brick column. Mr. Hoey died ten months later.

The jury returned the verdict late last night. A former jury had awarded the damages at $15,000, but the railway company obtained a re-trial. Mrs. Hoey became Mrs. Carroll a short time ago.

RICH MAN'S SON CUT HIS THROAT

Roessiger, Disinherited in Germany, First Tried Desperately to Murder His Wife, Who Escaped.

SISTER LADY-IN-WAITING TO QUEEN OF SAXONY.

Wife Locked Herself in Bathroom, and When She Finally Dared to Emerge Found Her Husband Dying.

Baldwin Roessiger, a baker, of No. 265 East Eighty-eighth street, said to be the son of a millionaire ink manufacturer of Leipzig, tried to murder his wife early to-day, and failing, cut his own throat. He is in the Presbyterian Hospital, where it is said he will die.

Roessiger's right name, according to his wife, is Baldwin Roessiger Von Driller. He was forty-one years old, and his wife was twenty-eight. He had been a soldier when he came to America, and his father was so enraged at him for this conduct that he cut him off, and has had no communication with him since. His sister, Mrs. Roessiger, is lady-in-waiting to the Queen of Saxony.

Roessiger has quarrelled much with his wife of late and when he went home from a night of work to-day got a razor and announced that he was going to kill her. He chased her about their apartment for some time. She finally locked herself in the bathroom, and after vainly trying to break down the door, Roessiger went to his bedroom and cut his own throat. Mrs. Roessiger found him dying when she overcame her fears sufficiently to leave the bathroom.

FILIPINO LEADER KILLED IN FIGHT

Macario Sakay and Fifteen of His Men Fell in an Engagement with Government Scouts and Constabulary.

MANILA, March 22.—Capt. Dewitt, with a detachment of constabulary, and Lieut. Pitney, with a detachment of scouts, have just encountered Macario Sakay, the so-called President of the Philippine Republic.

Sakay and fifteen of his followers were killed and the remainder of the band were captured. There were no casualties among the Americans.

ENDS LIFE WITH GAS.

Walter Ties Tube in His Mouth to Make It Secure.

George Tiedman, a waiter, committed suicide last night in the boarding-house at No. 228 Fifth street. He had lived in the house three years, but had not spoken of himself and his family to any of his relatives or friends if he had.

Tiedman went to his room at his usual time, attached a rubber tube to the gas jet, turned on the gas, tied the tube so that the end could not fall out of his mouth, and lay down on the bed to die. His body was found to-day.

AMEER'S DEATH DOUBTED.

LONDON, March 22.—No credence need be attached to the rumor from Ashkabad, Russian Transcaucasia, to the effect that the Amier of Afghanistan, Habibullah Khan, has been poisoned. All trustworthy news from Kabul reaches the British Indian Government weeks before it could possibly be known at Ashkabad.

GRAND WIFE
The Kind Worth Having.

A well-known lady of Carthage, Mo., says: "Although I do not drink tea or coffee myself, I have had a most interesting experience in my family, for about a year ago my husband began to fall in health. He would go to bed so very nervous at times he would have to give up his work and come home. His eyes were failing him and the doctor became alarmed—was afraid he was going to lose his sight. He also got very yellow in complexion, at times his blood ran cold from nervous chills, the doctor said."

"In a few days he would return to work still in that dull, chilly condition. He would drink coffee, coffee, coffee, for a stimulant," he would say (as he drank no liquor). "His condition gradually got worse instead of better, until finally I made up my mind coffee had something to do with it, so I bought a package of Postum without telling him and made it according to directions. He drank it and seemed to like it so I continued to make it, and before the first package was gone he began to get so clear of complexion and feel so well, eating fast in flesh. He was so delighted he would get weighed every day."

"Finally he talked so much about it (he had gained 10 pounds in 10 days) I could not keep it a secret any longer and told him to give Postum the credit. The consequences are there has been no more coffee in the house since, and no doctor either."

"Postum is a delightful drink made according to directions. I have found it better way, as it is a rich golden brown when cream is added. 'I forgot to say my husband's eyes are as strong as they ever were; he is well and hearty and does not sit around the stove, chilled all the time, as he did before.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

Coffee poison causes eye trouble in many cases as well as other ailments, and is never suspected. A ten days' trial proves things you will never forget. Look in each pkg. for the famous little book "The Road to Wellville."

SUICIDAL WAVE STRIKES HOBOKEN

Three Attempts at Self-Destruction There, Two of Them by Women, Within the Last Twenty-four Hours.

There have been three cases of attempted suicide in Hoboken within twenty-four hours. Two women attempted self destruction. Jennie Stammer, twenty years old, was arrested at her home, No. 126 Garden street, on complaint of Frans Balster, a German, who is employed on an American Line steamship. He has been in the habit of calling on the girl whenever his ship was in port. He told the police that he called last evening to take her to a theatre, and that while waiting for her to get ready, he fell asleep.

When he awoke he missed his girl. The girl was taken to headquarters and locked up. Shortly before midnight she was found hanging from a bar of the cell door. She had made a rope out of her dress and undershirt, which she had torn into strips. She was cut down and revived, but during the night, although a watch was set upon her, she made two more attempts upon her life. She was discharged by Recorder Stanton to-day. Balster had no proof that he ran away from military duty. His father was so enraged at him for this conduct that he cut him off, and has had no communication with him since. His sister, Mrs. Roessiger, is lady-in-waiting to the Queen of Saxony.

Roessiger has quarrelled much with his wife of late and when he went home from a night of work to-day got a razor and announced that he was going to kill her. He chased her about their apartment for some time. She finally locked herself in the bathroom, and after vainly trying to break down the door, Roessiger went to his bedroom and cut his own throat. Mrs. Roessiger found him dying when she overcame her fears sufficiently to leave the bathroom.

Frank Deersapt, fifty-two years old, a tinsmith, who cut his throat at No. 26 Park avenue, Hoboken, yesterday, is also in St. Mary's Hospital in a critical condition. He has been depressed, being on account of a failure. He has a wife and several children.

DYING BOY PLEADS TO SAVE HIS CHUM

Shot in Play, He Asks Coroner Not to Blame Lad Who Held Pistol When Fatal Bullet Was Fired.

(Special to The Evening World.) MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., March 22.—Irving Hunter, the seven-year-old boy who was accidentally shot by Theophile Dequellin, a thirteen-year-old lad, while playing burglars, died in the Mount Vernon Hospital this morning. Theophile is the son of Renet Dequellin, an artist, of No. 202 South Sixth avenue, and the shooting occurred in his home.

The boys were playing with a revolver, Coroner Weisenburger learned, when it was discharged and the bullet passed through Irving's abdomen. Irving was conscious almost up to the time of his death. To Coroner Weisenburger he said: "Don't blame Theophile. He couldn't help it. The shooting was an accident."

TRIED TO CUT HIS THROAT.

Roessiger, While Under the Influence of Drink, Wanted to Die. Baldwin Roessiger, forty-one years old, attempted suicide at home, No. 265 East Eighty-eighth street, to-day, by cutting his throat. He was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

The police say he was intoxicated.

GENERAL O'BEIRNE SAYS:

"Pe-ru-na Is an Effective Cure for Catarrh."

General James R. O'Beirne, 290 Broadway, Washington, D. C., late Commissioner of Charities of New York City, N. Y., and Assistant Commissioner of Immigration, writes as follows:

"As many of my friends and acquaintances have successfully used your Peruna as a catarrh cure, I feel that it is an effective remedy, and I recommend it as such to those suffering from that disease as a most hopeful source of relief."

Spring Time the Best Season of the Year to Treat Chronic Catarrh.

Notwithstanding that a great number of people have been cured of chronic catarrh by taking Peruna during the past cold season, yet it cannot be denied that the cold, wet, stormy weather has retarded many cures, and in some cases actually prevented a cure.

But springtime has come at last, and now is the time for all catarrh sufferers to begin a systematic course of treatment for this disease. The greatest difficulty in the way of treating chronic catarrh is that the patient is so liable to catch cold during the treatment and thus delay a cure.

This liability at this season of the year is, in a great measure, removed, and no one should neglect the opportunity to take treatment.

Peruna is acknowledged by every one to be the only reliable and unfailing cure of catarrh wherever it may be located. When you take Peruna you are not experimenting with an unknown remedy.

Men and women of national reputation, as well as thousands in the humbler walks of life, publicly endorse Peruna. Peruna does all that is claimed for it. It cures catarrh.

General John Middleton, Colonel of Hancock Regiment, U. S. A., in a letter from 111 E. St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"Your preparation of Peruna as a cure for catarrh as well as a tonic deserves the gratitude of those afflicted with that disease, as well as physical prostration. I have been very much benefited in every respect in various ways, and I feel it a duty to recommend its usefulness to my fellow-citizens."—Gen. John Middleton.

General Payne Writes:

Gen. Eugene B. Payne, 407 4th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I join with my comrades in recommending Peruna to my friends as a remarkable remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble, and to any one who needs an invigorating tonic to build up the system."

General Erwin's Recommendation.

General John B. Erwin, Washington, D. C., writes:

"Many of my friends have used Peruna as a dyspepsia remedy with the most beneficial results."

Hon. Dan. A. Grosvenor, of the Famous Ohio Family.

Hon. Dan. A. Grosvenor, Deputy Auditor for the War Department, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Peruna. One week has brought wonderful changes, and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best Spring tonics, it is an excellent catarrh remedy."

DAN. A. GROSVENOR.

In a recent letter he says:

"I consider Peruna really more meritorious than I did when I wrote you last. I receive numerous letters from acquaintances all over the country asking me for my certificate in genuine. I invariably answer yes."—Dan. A. Grosvenor.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

All the individuality that deft tailoring puts into the "set" of your coat marks the Regal Shoe for Women.

For the same reason: hand-work. There's more hand-work in Regal Women's Shoes than in any other shoes made outside of the shop of the high-priced custom bootmaker. They have exactly the same unmistakable dainty shapeliness as the made-to-measure shoes that will cost you $10 in New York. They are reproduced from the same originals—the hand-made models of Pinet of Paris, which set the shoe-fashions of the world.

The Regal way is the direct way. Thirty days after Pinet's first showing of a new model its exact duplicate is on sale in Regal stores for women, in every size and width. The average retailer's "new" models come trailing along six months afterward.

At six dollars these Regal would be your money's worth and more. At $3.50,—but won't you step in and see?
